

For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at the day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

|| Timothy 4:6-8

"Thus shall ye think of this fleeting world, a star at dawn, a bubble in a stream, a flash of lighting in a summer cloud, a flickering lamp, a phantom and a dream."

-Buddha

Obituary

Frank Dewey Link Jr., aka Slice or Mankie mank was born December 21, 1948 and was called home on November 30, 2013. He was the son of Frank and Jessie Link who preceded him in death. Born in Jersey City, New Jersey he was the eldest of three siblings William Howard and Carol Patricia.

He attended James F. Murray School and Henry Snyder High School in Jersey City. He attended Lincoln University in Pennsylvania. Soon after leaving Lincoln University he met and married Patricia Richardson and from that union they had 6 children.

He was a lifelong resident of Jersey City and worked at Exxon Mobil Corporation for almost 30 years from which he retired. Frank loved nature which included camping, visiting the mountains, going to the park and feeding the birds. He was also an avid singer and loved music. Later in his life he enjoyed visiting the countryside in Sussex with his cousins Khalil, Victor, and Burt. Frank’s grandchildren also gave him great joy.

Frank leaves to carry on his legacy his six children Karma M. Link of Bloomfield, NJ, Najah A. Link of Jersey City, NJ, Bibi A. Link of Roanoke, VA, Frank Dewey Link III of Jersey City, NJ, Janardan V. Link of Clifton, NJ and Jamilla Y. Link of South River, NJ, his partner of many years Rosemary Johnson (Ms.Rose) of Jersey City, NJ, eight grandchildren, nieces and a host of family and friends.
