Obituary

Tyrone Hines was born on February 19, 1977, Newark, NJ, to Willie Edward Hines and Alberta Hines. He loved Jehovah and the field ministry. At a very young age, he set spiritual goals. He was baptized at the age of nine. As an adolescent he attended and received his education in Irvington, NJ, attending Irvington High School class of 1994.

Even though Tyrone had a scholarship to go to Princeton University, he chose to pursue the pioneer ranks. He received the blessings of becoming a regular pioneer. Then as a ministerial servant, he became more involved with serving the friends in the congregation. Continuing to remain strengthened by Jehovah wanting to do more to build his relationship with God. He continued to press on to Christian maturity. He later became an elder in the Christian congregation.

Tyrone not only had a self-sacrificing spirit, he also was a cheer-full giver. Although he had various health issues he remained strong - our true brother, our true friend, faithful to the end. A true friend shows love at all times, and is a brother who is born for times of distress (Proverbs 17:17).

Tyrone Hines leaves behind: his parents, Willie Edward Hines and Alberta Hines; brothers, Sudecki Hines (Emmanuel), Danny Hines, Timothy Hines (Tehesha), Elijahuan Chestnut and Christopher Hines; aunts and uncles, Ann Hines, Nick Hines, Little Bay Hines, Janet Hines, Gene Chestnut, Eloise Reddick, Hattain Chestnut, Willie Mae Chestnut and Florene Chestnut. He also leaves behind a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, other family members and friends.

He Will Call

(Job 14:13-15)

1. Life, like a mist, appears for just a day,
Then disappears tomorrow.
All that we are can quickly fade away,
Replaced with tears and sorrow.
If a man should die, can he live again?
Hear the promise God has made:

(CHORUS)

He will call; The dead will answer.
They shall live at his command.
For he will have a longing
For the work of his own hand.
So have faith, and do not wonder,
For our God can make us stand.
And we shall live forever,
As the work of his own hand.

2. Friends of our God, though they may pass away,
Will never be forsaken.
All those asleep who in God's mem'ry stay,
From death he will awaken.
Then we'll come to see all that life can be:
Paradise eternally.

(CHORUS)

See Yourself When All Is New

(Revelation 21:1-5)

1. Just see yourself, just see me too;
Just see us all in a world that is new.
Think how you'll feel, how it will be,
To live in peace, to be truly free.
No evil one will then prevail;
Rule by our God cannot ever fail.
The time will have come for a
new earthly start,
The song of our praises
will pour out from our heart:

(CHORUS)

"Jehovah our God, how well you have done!
All things are new by the rule of your Son.
The fullness of our heart
overflows in our song;
All glory and honor and praise
to you belong."

2. Now see yourself, and see me too;
And look ahead to a world that is new.
No sight we see, no sound we hear
Will cause alarm or give rise to fear.
All has come true, just as he said;
Now over mankind, his tent is spread.
He now shall awaken those
sleeping in death;
Their voices will join us with
ev'ry grateful breath:

(CHORUS)

From House To House

1. From house to house, from door to door,
Jehovah's word we spread.

From town to town, from farm to farm,
Jehovah's sheep are fed.

This good news that God's Kingdom rules,
As Jesus Christ foretold,
Is being preached throughout the earth
By Christians young and old.

2. From house to house, from door to door,
Salvation we proclaim.

It comes to those who choose to call
Upon Jehovah's name.

But how can they call on the name
Of One they do not know?

So to their houses and their doors,
The sacred name must go.

3. So let us go from door to door
To spread the Kingdom news.

And whether it's embraced or not,
We'll let the people choose.

At least we'll name Jehovah's name,
His glorious truth declare.

And as we go from door to door,
We'll find his sheep are there.
