Obituary

Kason Kelvin Anthony Williams was born and raised in Newark, NJ on August 7, 1984 to Carol Williams and the late Jonathan L. White. He departed his earthly life at the young age of 29 on December 17, 2013.

He was educated in the Newark Public School system, attending Lousi A. Spencer Elementary School and Howard Wilson as well as Madison Ave. Elementary School and graduated from Montgomery Academy where he received his diploma in 2002. Although Kason was a Auto Mechanic by trade, he joined the bowling team in the 9th grade because he fell in love with the sport. He continued bowling through out his life even after graduation. Kason started working right after graduation as a security guard at the Garden State Bowling Alley until the bowling alley was shut down in 2009. Kason had a love for cooking and attained a position as a lead cook for a new restaurant by the name of Malibu in the down town area in Newark.

Kason was affectionately known as “Babyboy”, “Kay”, “Big Daddy”, “K-Boogie”, “Uncle”, “Big K” and his bowling name was ESPN. Kason his childhood nickname was “Poohda-Wooda” giving to him by his Auntie Diane at birth. Kason’s spirit was full of life. He was always ready to fix someone’s problem. He made you laugh when you were sad because of his joyful, pleasant and loving caring spirit.

Kason was preceded in death by his father, Jonathan White, his baby brother, Jonathan Jr., god sister, Mary Woods, grandparents, Teno White, Doris Redfern, Theodore Williams, Joyce Williams and three uncles Michle, Rodney Sr. and Lavon Redfern, two cousins, Rodney Redfern, Jr. and Shanquita Robertson.

Kason leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Carol Williams; two sisters, Kisa and Keyondar Williams; three brothers, Rasheek Page, Kareem Henderson and Akeem Brown; two daughters, Alayisa and Malika; three god brothers, Sammad, Malik, Sharif and Rakiem Giles; six stepchildren, Jani’e and Jaka Daniels, Erica, Al-Jamarll, Al-Zizz and Ashmole; three nieces, Keyonna, Jerrah and Inajha; one nephew, Nasir; five aunts, Aquilla Williams, Angela Williams, Audrey Williams, Diane Redfern and Felicia Redfern; uncles, John Williams, Sydney Thompson and Kevin Anthony Williams; his two best friends, Shanna Woods and Saferrah Sapp; BMF, Effrain, Shuan, Haddi, Byron and B; and a host of family and many more friends.

Son-All I Know

All I Know Son
You never had time to say
I am leaving mom
You never said goodbye
You were gone before I knew it and only
God knows why
A million times I have already needed you
A million times I have cried
If love alone could have saved you
You never would have died
If my tears could build a stairway to heaven
I walk right up there and bring you back home
My son your sisters and I
We are lost without you and we don't understand why
Your gone just to soon baby boy
Just to soon my son
Your sisters and I need to know why
You were snatched right out of our hands as I heard your last cry...
There's no words that can express the pain and hurt I feel inside... so I just won't try

I will always love you my son and that will never die and I will not say goodbye
We will meet again some day, somewhere in heaven up in the sky.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
