The Obituary

Organist Lyn F. Peachey was born February 21, 1942 in Brooklyn, New York and died in Wilmington, Delaware on Friday, December 20, 2013, at the age of 71.

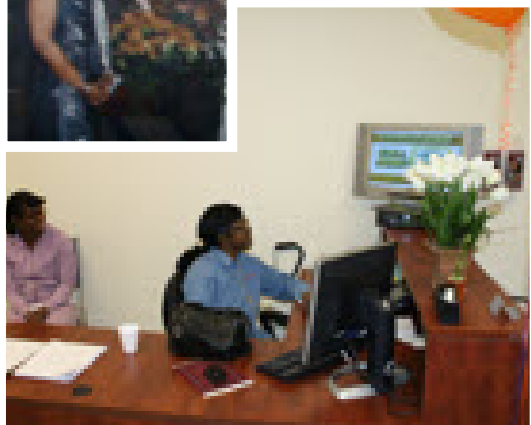

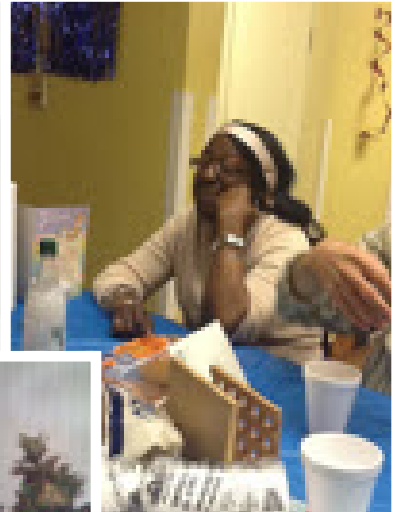

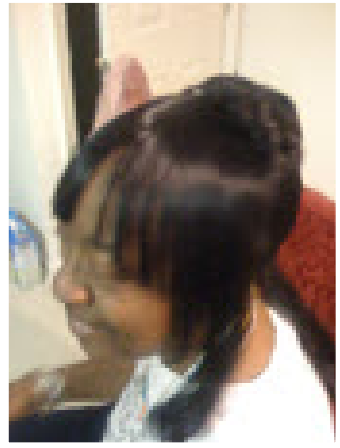

Her loving parents, Andrew and Mary Peachey, predeceased Lyn F. Peachey. She will be reunited with her daughter, Melody Lynn Naughton, her sister, Andrea Peachey-Norman, as well as her brother, Roger Peachey.

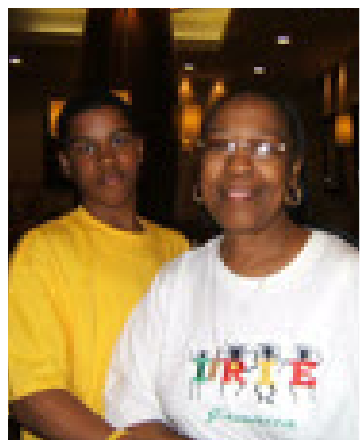

Lyn F. Peachey is lovingly remembered by her family: eight children, Mary, Michael, Daniel, Nathaniel, Duval, Rachel, Gabriel and Jamail; son-in-law, Lee Woodall; fourteen grandchildren, Tariq, Daniel Jr., Joyanne, Tajuana, Breanne, Jaylen, Julianna, Duval III, Michael Jr., Aliyah, Alijah, Lee Jr., Landen and Jay-Ana; four nieces, Kim, Kimberly, Kelly and Karen; one nephew, Rocky; three cousins, Joyce, Guy and Marc.

Lyn F. Peachey's musical talent was unlimited. Her journey began at the early age of two. She was blessed with many talents and became the youngest organist to play within a church. She has a long list of accomplishments including playing her first Bach piece at two years old. Lyn began teaching piano at the age of six, studied at MBC studios since the age of five. At age eight, she was the organist at the Offspring Baptist Church in Brooklyn, NY. In one of many of her newspaper articles it stated "the little genius memorized 10 pieces for her auditions at Julliard playing Bach, Chopin, Mozart, and Beethoven with alacrity and received the highest average of 96%". Lyn attended The High School of Performing Arts in 1954 And The Guilmant Organ School in NY. Lyn taught Music/Theory at the St. Peter Claver School in Queens, NY and St. Joseph's Episcopal Church School. She also worked for several churches and funeral homes requested for weddings and funerals. She retired from St. Joseph's Episcopal Church after 30 years serving as Organist of the music ministry. Lyn F. Peachey traveled and played all over the world. She was gifted beyond her years and touched the lives of the many.

Lyn enjoyed writing and playing music, playing Word with Friends on her Kindle, and reading. On December 20, 2013, God brought another angel into the heavens. Lyn will be truly missed.

Mom, you sacrificed your pain for our joy,
Played melodic tunes for all of our hearts,
You smiled to lift our spirits,
Me before you? Why did you do?
From dusk to dawn you rarely fret,
You provided everything to me without any regrets.

Days upon nights,
pondering what can make things right
Though with prayer and faith
You never put up a fight.
We close our eyes to shed a tear,
Why'd you leave me alone?
I need your strength to bear.
Your wisdom and love instilled in me
I know you're with God, my angel, my Mom,
Your life was created for me.

Feeling your presence lessens my sadness,
You bring brightness to mornings,
Fulfilling my heart with gladness
Missing the days expressing your love
You exemplified the true meaning of a mother's love.

Smiling through pain, playing music through fears
You trusted and believed
Like the mustard seed some challenged to read
Positive and optimistic many can't be
You were one of a kind in God's sight
I'm so grateful to see.
