Obituary

Anne Robinson Harris was born to the late George and Agnes Brown Robinson on May 10, 1928 in Fairfield, South Carolina. Anne was the sixth child of fifteen siblings. She was a member of Gethsemane Baptist Church and received her education at Gethsemane High School.

Anne traveled to NYC in 1949 to start a better life where she met Gladwin Harris and was soon united in Holy Matrimony in 1953. In 1954, they would reside at 70 East 127th Street where during their fifty-one years of marriage seven children would be raised - six boys and one girl. Three sons would predecease her, Anthony, Roland and Gladwin, Jr.

She began working various jobs until she retired after twenty-eight years of service at the Elysee Hotel in housekeeping service. Anne was well loved in her community by friends and associates. She was an active member of her block association where she was known by many, especially by her down home cooking.

Anne leaves to mourn her passing: four children - one daughter, Gloria; and three sons, Donald, Richard and Duane; three sisters, Agnes Washington of District Heights, Maryland, Carrie Robinson of Wilmington, Delaware and Mattie Tillman of Columbia, South Carolina; two brothers, George Robinson Jr. of Lexington, North Carolina and Jimmy Robinson of Mitchellville, Maryland; twelve grandchildren, eight great grandchildren; two daughters-in-law Alzada Harris and Wanda Addison; five sisters-in-law and one brother in-law; and a host of other family members and friends.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
