

Poem For My Mommy

*God looked around His garden and he found an empty place.
 He looked down upon the earth
 and saw your tired face.
 He put His arms around you
 and lifted you to rest.
 God's garden must be beautiful,
 He always takes the best.
 He knew that you were suffering,
 He knew you were in pain.
 He knew that you would never
 Get well on earth again.
 He saw the road was getting rough
 and the hills were hard to climb, so He closed your weary eyelids and whispered
 "Peace be Thine."
 It broke our hearts to lose you.
 But, you didn't go alone.
 For parts of us went with you
 The day God called you home.*

Love You Mommy
 Keyonna S. Andrews-Perry (Daughter)

Acknowledgement

Special thanks to Laureen Flood-Rivers.
 Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
 Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
 Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
 Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
 Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.

Obituary

Mrs. Sakinah Andrews-Perry was born May 13, 1975 in Newark, New Jersey, daughter of Mrs. Linda Marie Hines, and the late Albert Harrington.

Sakinah was a native of Irvington, New Jersey and she was educated in the Irvington, New Jersey Public School system. Sakinah graduated from Irvington High School in 1992. Sakinah held numerous jobs in the New Jersey area until she was employed by New Jersey Transit as a Bus Operator Technician for eighteen years until her health started to fail. Sakinah joined Emanuel Missionary Baptist Church where she was a faithful member. Sakinah was a caring, loving and kind hearted sweet person. She was the right person to come to when you needed someone to talk to. Sakinah would listen and then let you finish your story before she rendered a decision of right or wrong. Sakinah was a beautiful person to us until God called her back to him. We love her dearly and we will remember every precious moment she shared with us.

Sakinah met the love of her life Mr. Preston Lee Perry in which they have been together over twenty-two years and married for eight years. In their union three children were born, daughters, Keyonna S. Andrews-Perry, Khadija Perry, son, Levi S. Andrews-Perry, two stepsons, Ibn and Samod Burse.

Mrs. Sakinah L. Andrews-Perry (38) of East Orange, NJ, went home to rest on Thursday, January 23, 2014 also to join her deceased daughter, Lois Perry, son, Albert Perry, father, Albert (Levi) Harrington, grandmother, Mrs. Marie Mack-Andrews and a host of late relatives.
