Legacy of Life

God called Deborah Lynn Bryant home on Sunday, January 26, 2014.

Deborah Lynn Bryant aka (Deb) as she was affectionately called by her family was born James A. Bryant and the late Ossie Harrington-Bryant on November 30, 1951 in Smithville, North Carolina.

Deb later relocated with her family to Newark, NJ where she befriended lifelong friend, Denise Bishop. She later attended Eastside High School and met Kurt Culbreath. After high school, Deb attended Essex County College, majoring in Business Administration. While looking towards her degree, Deborah successfully gained employment at Newark City Hall. During this time, she gave birth to a beautiful son, Khalil Amir Culbreath. After almost forty years of diligent service Deborah retired from Center Planning within City Hall in Newark, NJ.

Deborah was a perfect example of an phenomenal woman filled with love and joy. Deb would put a smile on any face she came across.

God has blessed us with a beautiful daughter, a loving mother, a wonderful grandmother, a caring niece, an understanding cousin and a devoted friend.

Deborah Lynn Bryant's legacy will continue to live through her father, James A. Bryant; son, Khalil A. Culbreath; daughter-in-law, Capri Culbreath; granddaughter, I'yanah Khaliah Scott; godson, Quazir Bishop; nieces and nephews, Timothy Rajaun Bryant, Timothy Karl Bryant, Jr, Jawanna Bryant and Nyteriah Bryant, Tonya, Kahleel, Amir, Najee, Bilal, Quazir, Sequoia, Shaneequah and Jodi; and a host of family, friends and loved ones.

God Looked Around His Garden

and found an empty place.*

*Then He looked down upon the earth
and saw your tired face.*

He placed His arms around you and lifted you to rest.

*God's garden must be beautiful,
for He only takes the best.*

*He knew that you were suffering,
He knew you were in pain,
He saw the road was getting rough
and the hills were hard to climb,
so He closed your e yes and whispered
"Peace be Thine."*

*It broke our hearts to lose you
but you did not go alone,
a part of us went with you
the day God called you home.
If love would have saved you,
you never would have died.*
