Beyond The Sunset

Should you go first and I remain,
to walk the road alone, I'll live in memories garden, dear, with happy days we've known.
In spring I'll wait for roses red, when fades, the lilacs blue
In early fall when brown leaves fall, I'll catch a glimpse of you.
I'll hear your voice, I'll see your smile, tho blindly I may grope,
The memory of your helping hand will buoy me on with hope.
Should you go first and I remain,
one thing I'll have you do:
Walk slowly down that long long path,
For soon I'll follow you.
I want to know each step you take,
So I may walk the same.
For someday down that lonely road, you'll hear me call your name
