Obituary

A TIME TO BE BORN:

Marquis Brewer, was born on July 5, 1993 to Allen Brewer and Minnie Lee Davis-Brewer.

A TIME TO LIVE:

Marquis attended Fannie Lou Hammer High School, Bronx, NY. As a young boy, he had a love for sports, playing on both baseball and basketball teams. He was also focused and headstrong earning his 1st degree black belt, a high ranking status in karate. Better known as “Quo” to his friends, Marquis had a good heart and a playful spirit. He was always known for cracking jokes and playing around, yet he supported everyone around him by sharing whatever he had.

A TIME TO LOVE:

Marquis embraced fatherhood in April 2012, with the birth of his beautiful daughter Maliyah, his pride and joy, from his union with Shaneal Watts.

A TIME TO DIE:

Marquis was called back home on February 3, 2014.

A TIME TO MOURN:

Marquis leaves memories that will be cherished in the hearts of his family and friends: daughter, Maliyah Brewer; partner, Shaneal Watts; parents, Allen Brewer and Minnie Lee Davis-Brewer; two brothers, Allen Davis and Shawn Davis; two sisters, Alicia Brewer and Keyanna Brewer; grandmother, Mrs. Amelia Davis; sister-in-law, Tamek Gillard; ten aunts, Helen Davis, Mega Davis, Beverly Davis, Essie Davis, Karen Davis, Shirley Buggs, Rosetta Brewer, Barbara Brewer, Amelia Nelson and Venetta Brewer; three uncles, Felix Davis, Lorenzo Brewer and Daniel Carson; two nephews, Allen (AJ) Davis and Shawn Perry-Davis; one niece, Tianna Davis; and a host of beloved relatives and friends.

Dear Son,

*There's an open gate at the end of the road
Through each must go alone
Oh, how we wish we can see you again tomorrow
But knowing that you're at peace helps with our sorrow*

*We discover comfort in our faith and God's amazing grace
He knew what was best when He took you into His embrace
Your memory will live on in us as we say our goodbye
Consolations we gain as our baby boy is now our angel in the sky
Forever in our hearts,
Mom & Dad*

*Marquis,
Our hearts ache and our tears flow
Not having you around is hard to let go
Your leaving came in such a way*

*We will never forget yesterday
By having faith in seeing you soon one day*

*Rest in Peace,
Allen, Shawn, Alicia & Keyanna*
