Reflections of Life

Solange Francis Cadet went home to be with the Lord on January 26, 2014 at Kindred Healthcare of St. Joseph's Hospital in Wayne, NJ.

A resident of East Orange, NJ since 1981, Solange was born on June 29, 1938 in Saint Marc, Haiti, the daughter of Theopholis Parisien and Margaret Jessup.

Solange resided in Brooklyn, NY since 1965 where she helped to raise her four sons.

Solange retired from Morgan Stanley Dean Witter Reynolds in 2001 after thirty years of service as a dedicated legal clerk. She was also a tireless homemaker for 45 years.

Solange was a devout member and activist for the Church of the Calling Rock since 1992.

She is survived by her son, Anthony S. Cadet and wife Christina, her son, Wayne Cadet and his fiancée, Lynn Meyer, her son, Nick R. Cadet and her son, Steve Cadet; four grandchildren, Nigel, Cerrina, Cayla and Makayla Cadet; her sister Yvette Pierre and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, godchildren and many friends.

Psalm 23

*The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We Thank You, Whatever the part.
