The Life and Times of Renea Debra Ragin

Renea Debra Ragin, was born October 9, 1956 in Mount Sinai Hospital, to the late Marie Ragin and Milton Ragin.

Renea attended Elementary School P.S 184 and Louis D. Brandeis High School in New York City.

Renea loved music, playing basketball, shooting pool, motorcycles and most of all running; and that's how she met John. Renea met, fell in love and married John Wesley Evans, Jr. June of 1974. That union produced one daughter, Sydell.

Renea was a loving and caring mother, sister, aunt and friend. No matter where Renea went she made many loving and lasting friendships.

Renea departed this life on February 3, 2014.

Leaving to mourn her: one daughter, Sydell Nicole Ragin Taylor; son-in-law, Guy William Taylor; two grandchildren, Tashara Monay William and Christopher Malik Taylor of Clarkville, TN; three sisters, Michelle Ragin of Saint Pauls, NC, Melody and Michael Foster of the Bronx, NY, her twin, Debbie and Barry Higgs of the Bronx, NY; three brothers, Arthur Ragin, Milton and Janet Ragin of the Bronx, NY, Leon and Latisha Ragin; uncles, Arthur and Priscilla Wright of Las Vegas, NV, Raymond King of Manhattan, NY; aunts, Tracy Ragin Evans of New Port News, VA, Tillie and Stoney Toomer of Beaufort, SC; a host of niece and nephews, grand niece and nephew, cousins and friends.

I Only Wanted You

They say memories are golden well maybe that is true.

I never wanted memories,
I only wanted you.

A million times I needed you,
a million times I cried.

If love alone could have saved you
you never would have died.

In life I loved you dearly,
In death I love you still.
In my heart you hold a place
no one could ever fill.

If tears could build a stairway
and heartache make a lane,
I'd walk the path to heaven
and bring you back again.

Our family chain is broken,
and nothing seems the same.
But as God calls us one by one,
the chain will link again.
