

A Celebration of Her Life

Vera Calhoun

1917-2014

Reflections of Life

Vera Calhoun was born in Saluda, South Carolina. In her early youth, she migrated to Passaic, NJ. There she resided for more than sixty years. During those years she met many helpful and thoughtful neighbors and friends.

Vera was an honest and dedicated member of her community whose friendly and nurturing personality warmed the hearts of those who knew her. Vera had an especial passion for the game of Bingo and would fit that sport in her schedule as often as she could.

Vera leaves behind to cherish her memory: her Godson, Ronde Henry of Maryland, cousin and caregiver, Doris Moses and many cousins, helpful neighbors and friends.

She will be remembered with fond memories.
