Obituary

Jemima Guerrier was born on January 12th 1984 to her loving parents Jean Jerome and Pauline Jorelus in Port-au-Prince Haiti. Jemima attended kindergarten at Coeur de Jesus School. She then went onto the institution mixte frères Ardouin for primary school. Jemima's secondary education was completed at the Lucien Hibbert College where she received her High School diploma in 2006.

After completing school Jemima expressed her passion for attending law school, but after seeing her ailing mother she felt that she was called to peruse a career in health care.

Soon after arriving in the US Jemima attended the James International Academy of Health in Pompano Beach, Florida. There she studied the fundamentals of Nursing and she graduated in 2010. Jemima was a professional student, she always wanted to have more for herself, with that in mind Jemima went on to attend The Sunshine Career Institute in Miami, Florida. There she graduated with her certification as a Home Health Aide in 2012.

After a needed visit with her mother in Haiti, Jemima was inspired to leave her job at The Kelly Service Agency and move to Boston, Massachusetts. Before Jemima's untimely demise she was employed at the local Food Lion.

In Jemima's quest to always help those in need, she chose to become an organ donor, this allowing her live on the hearts and memories of everyone she met, as well as those she never knew.

Jemima leaves to mourn and cherish her memory, Her devoted mother, Pauline Jorelus, Two dear brothers, K. Rochel, and David Guerrier, her half sister Yveline Guerrier, and her very caring and special uncle, Joseph Gabriel Guerrier. Jemima is also survived by a host of other relatives and friends.

Mama, Rest in Peace, we will always remember you, we know this is God's will, and He knows best.

Safely Home

*I am home in Heaven, dear ones;
Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty
In this everlasting light.*

*All the pain and grief is over,
Every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever,
Safely home in Heaven at last.*

*Did you wonder I so calmly Trod
the valley of the shade?*

Oh! But Jesus' love illumined Every dark and fearful glade.

*And He came Himself to meet me In that way so hard to tread;
And with Jesus' arm to lean on, Could I have one doubt or dread?*

*Then you must not grieve so sorely, For I love you dearly still:
Try to look beyond earth's shadows,
Pray to trust our Father's Will.*

*There is work still waiting for you, So you must not idly stand;
Do it now, while life remaineth - You shall rest in Jesus' land.*

*When that work is all completed, He will gently call you Home:
Oh, the rapture of that meeting, Oh, the joy to see you come!*
