Precious Memories

Reflections of Life

Pauline Burwell-Hinson was born on May 27, 1942 in Paterson, NJ to James A. Burwell and Bernice M. Floyd. It was in Paterson, NJ where she was raised and graduated from Central High School. In high school, she enjoyed the popularity associated with being a cheerleader as well as a beauty pageant participant. Her academic success in high school led her to Bennett College in Greensboro, North Carolina. It was there that she became the independent, successful, outgoing and elegant person that she was. It was also there she met her former husband and had two wonderful children, Anthony Lamont Hinson of California, and Michelle Lynn Stroble of New Jersey, both whom she adored and dedicated her life to.

Pauline first started work at the New Jersey Bell Telephone Company. From there she pursued a career working for Pfizer Inc., a company she loved and where she met many wonderful colleagues, who later became loyal friends and remained close at heart. The company recognized Pauline's hard work and dedication and she was promoted to a supervisory position in Bethlehem, PA. She accepted that challenge and retired there after being with the company for thirty-six years.

Before moving on to Pennsylvania, Pauline was a dedicated member of Union Baptist Church in Passaic, New Jersey. She led the women's ministries and became involved in setting up seminars and guest speakers.

Pauline loved living in Pennsylvania where she established a new life meeting wonderful new friends whom she adored and cherished spending time with. Pauline also found her passion for helping others who were grieving. With the encouragement of family and friends she fulfilled her desire to become a Chaplain. She truly had a gift and supported others in their journey by volunteering her services at St. Luke's Hospital to help those in need of counseling.

She is predeceased by her father, James A. Burwell and her sister, Joyce Ann Gaston.

Pauline was called home to rest on Thursday, February 6, 2014 at the age of 71.

Pauline leaves behind to cherish precious memories: a son, Anthony Hinson; a daughter-in-law, Margo Hinson, who she truly loved and adored and accepted as a daughter to her, both of Sacramento, California; a daughter, Michelle Stroble; son-in-law, Derrick Stroble, Sr., Who, she cherished and often said, "He was the best son-in-law a mother could ask for" both of Clifton, New Jersey. She also leaves behind her 90 year old mother, Bernice M. Floyd of Paterson, New Jersey, who remained a consistent source of strength for her; her brother, Wayne Burwell with whom she shared a close bond and loved dearly, and a very special and dedicated sister-in-law, who never left her side during her time of need, Dale Burwell both of Paterson, New Jersey; four wonderful grandchildren who she truly loved and cared for Derrick, Jr., Danasia (her only granddaughter), Devon and Jalen and a host of special nieces, nephews, devoted family and friends.
