

If Tears Could Build A Stairway

*If tears could build a stairway
And memories were a lane.
We would walk right up to heaven
And bring you back again
No farewell words were spoken
No time to say goodbye
You were gone before we knew it
And only God knows why
Our hearts still ache in sadness
And secret tears still flow
What it meant to love you
No one can ever know
But now we know you want us
To mourn for you no more
To remember all the happy times
Life still has much in store
Since you'll never be forgotten
We pledge to you today
A hallowed place within our hearts
Is where you'll always stay.*

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.

Obituary

Antawanette Washington departed this life on February 10, 2014 at University Hospital, Newark, New Jersey.

Antawanette Washington was born February 20, 1970, in Newark, New Jersey. In 1976, the family moved to Hillside, NJ, where she attended the Hillside School District.

She became the proud mother of Iyana Washington-Lee and Isaiah Ariel, who was cherished by their mom.

Antawanette loved spending time with her family and was especially adored by her nieces and nephews. Antawanette touched the lives of many people with her smile and her eyes will always remain as her trademark.

Antawanette's generous spirit led her to the decision of giving life so that others may live. Her giving continues as her donation of organs will touch the lives of countless people. Her selflessness has restored life's promise for many families which is a display of character that is priceless, sincere, and Godly.

Antawanette Washington is survived by her father and mother, Carey and Rosetta Washington; one daughter, Iyana Washington-Lee, one son Isaiah Ariel; one sister, Monica Washington; her twin brother, Antawan Washington, one sister-in-law, Cereste Washington. Antawanette was preceded in death by her oldest brother, Desmond Washington.

Antawanette also leaves to cherish her memory: David Fuller; three nieces, Octavia, Taniyah, and Ashley; two nephews, Ibn and Antawan, Jr.; one great niece, Laila, aunts, uncles, cousins, and a host of family and friends.
