YOU'RE NOT ALONE

You're not alone when troubles come and your heart is beating like a drum.
You're not alone through sorrow's night
when nothing seems to go just right.
The Savior waits to hear from you and give you strength for all you do.
He knows the secrets of your heart, and
He can make your fears depart.
You're not alone without a guide – He sees each tear you've ever cried.
God comforts those who seek His way
and knows our hearts before we pray.
His perfect peace and endless love fall
like feathers from above.
There is no cross too large to bear –
you're not alone for Christ is there.

FAREWELL BUT NOT GOOD-BYE

My job on earth may be done,
But my life in heaven has just begun.
I know that I'll truly be missed,
But my name was next on that golden list.
To my friends and family I know you cared;
Now you must help each other
with mourning and tears.
I know you're wishing it wasn't true
With sunshine and clouds of blue
Thinking to yourself why and who?
Just remember me for all I've done,
Making jokes and having fun.
For you all have a piece of me inside,
For that memory within will never die.
It is you who hold the key that know
When the sun shines my dreams
and memory will glow.
So farewell, but not good-bye,
For I will see you all someday
In that great big golden sky my friend.

Acknowledgement

In our sorrow, we have witnessed the love and friendship of our many friends. There is comfort in knowing that you care - thank you for your cards, emails and phone calls. Most of all, there is comfort in knowing that you were there – thank you for the strength and courage you express in your smiles.
