God's Calling Him By Name

As we gather together
And the tears run down your face,
Let us keep our eyes on Jesus
And the goodness of His grace.
You may have lost the one you love
And I know it causes pain,
But if you were in heaven now
God is calling him by name.
He says He's glad to see him -
That it's been a long, long time,
Then He wraps His arms around him
And He tells him all is fine,
God shows him all His mansions
With the rolling hills and plains,
And reminds him up in heaven,
He won't suffer any pain.
So as we sit in silence,
Let us bow our heads in prayer,
Praising God for all His blessings
And thanking Him for being there.
May God always walk beside you,
'Til your time on earth is through,
In God's time you'll go to heaven
And will see your loved one, too.
