Reflections of Life

Mr. Marion “Bones” Rumph, son of the late Lonnie Rumph and Lottie Robinson Rumph entered into eternal rest on February 20, 2014. He was born March 28, 1928 in St. Matthews, South Carolina.

He attended the public schools of Calhoun County. He worked in Charleston, South Carolina then in Youngstown, Ohio, before moving to New York in 1967. After working various laborer positions, Marion settled into a school custodian position with the NYC Board of Education in 1970. In 1990, he retired from the NYC public school system as a school custodian at Morris High School, in the Bronx.

Three brothers, Hercules Rumph, Albert Rumph and Alonzo Rumph; and three sisters, Frances Murph, Mae Julia Holman and India Maude Fuller predeceased him in death.

To cherish his memories he leaves: three brothers, Willie Rumph of Orangeburg, SC, Johnny Rumph (Fannie) of Columbia, SC and Saul Rumph of the Bronx, New York; one sister, Angie Murph of Columbia, SC; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
