Reflections of Life

Tara Lynnette Hannah-Bell was born in Paterson, NJ on May 7, 1987 to Michele Hannah and Benjamin Bell.

Tara was educated in the Passaic School system, where she graduated in 2006. She also was a student at Passaic County Community College. She worked in retail for many years. Her number one job was taking care of her son.

She was a former member of St. Paul Baptist Church Passaic, NJ, where she was a member of the Joy Bells choir. Tara was a daughter, sister, granddaughter, beloved niece and wonderful friend. Most of all she was an amazing, and loving mother.

Tara was preceded in death by both her grandmothers, Lillian (Carter) Hannah and Gwendolyn Tosen and one uncle, Arthur Hannah.

Tara departed this life on Saturday, February 22, 2014.

She was a loving, caring, strong willed, very funny, down to earth, fierce, a drama queen, hypochondriac, a go-getter, adventurous and out going, she had her own personal style, with a big smile and heart of gold.

Tara leaves to cherish fond memories: one beloved son, Nasai Agyemang; parents, Michele Hannah, Benjamin Bell, and stepmother, Algje Norris; loving grandfather, Walter Dallas; four brothers, Benjamin Bell-Hannah, Degron Mann, Shyron Wade, and Professor Norris; three sisters, Tabitha Hannah-Bell, Toshiba, and Cieara; godmother, Yolanda Jiles; three godchildren, Joseph, Haleihs, and Aniyah; one beloved friend, Chantel Mann; special uncle, Ronald Hannah; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

To My Twin

On February 22 who would have thought you would be gone forever. There isn't a scenario I haven't thought of that perhaps maybe you could be here just a little longer. At 26 I wouldn't have fathomed the thought of me saying goodbye for the moment or doing half of the things necessary to send you off well. But I know that we will meet again. They say life is crazy and unpredictable. There is good and bad, ups and downs. You were there to see me through it all. You are my sister, my first best friend, my partner...we did little apart. We were a whole and now a half is gone. In do time we shall meet again. I will always miss you and love you...forever and a day. I'm waiting on that bright smile of yours looking to the sky. You are my phenomenal woman.
