Reflections of Life

Lucy Pauline Jackson began this life on May 19, 1942 in Martinsville, Virginia. She was the daughter of Thomas Matthews and Evernel Scurry and lovingly raised by the late Margaret Richardson and the late Bishop James C. Richardson, Sr. of Martinsville, Virginia. She met and married her one and only partner for 51 years of this life, Robert Jackson. She entered into eternal rest on Tuesday, February 25, 2014 at Hospice by the Sea in Boca Raton, Florida.

Lucy, affectionately known as “Pauline” to many of her friends and family, was a Christ-centered, talented, caring, and an intelligent woman. She loved the Lord and was a dedicated educator. Pauline was heavily involved in her church, Emmanuel Church of Christ, Disciples of Christ for thirty-six years. She helped to establish activities including going to amusement parks, church picnics, debutantes, talent shows, and theater plays. Her musicianship is evidenced by four generations of choirs - Emmanuel Youth Choir, HN Foy Joy Ensemble, Spiritual/Gospel Voices, and the Male Chorus as well as by the plethora of musicians and directors that sat under her tutelage.

Lucy completed her secondary education at Albert Harris High School in Martinsville, Virginia. She attended Winston Salem State from 1960 to 1964 where she studied to become an elementary school teacher and sang in the choir. In 1962, Pauline and Bobby Jackson, her college sweetheart, tied the knot. As a college senior, she was voted as Miss Winston Salem State. In 1965, she and the love of her life, Robert Jackson, moved to New Jersey where she worked as an elementary school literacy teacher at the Elizabeth Board of Education. She was awarded “Teacher of the Year” in 1987. She obtained her Master of Arts Degree in Reading from Kean College in 1983. After thirty three years of committed service, this kind, passionate, thoughtful educator retired. In 2001, she moved to Lauderhill, Florida to enjoy her family. She cherished most her husband and two children.

Lucy Pauline Jackson was preceded in death by her precious father and mother Thomas Matthews and Evernel Scurry; she is survived by her loving husband, Robert Jackson, son, Robert A. Jackson both of Lauderhill, Florida, daughter, Kahalida Jackson-Bunn of Sunrise, Florida, siblings, Bishop James C. Richardson, Jr. (Gloria) of Martinsville, Virginia, Mary Mason of Martinsville, Virginia, Jeanette Millner (Harry) of Winston Salem, North Carolina, grandchildren, Shaquille, Shanice, Robert Jr., Elijah, Daymon, Isaiah, Josiah, and Alyssah; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives, and friends.

Pauline is now in heaven, playing for the angels...Oh Happy Day!

*Just a little letter, I just wanted to say.
Everything is fine. And I got here ok.
I made it to heaven. This place is really great.
Family came to meet me. They were waiting by the gate.
I am young again. No illness and no pain.
Things I could not do on earth, I can now do again.
This place is beautiful. I feel like I have come home.
There are waterfalls and flowers and green fields where I roam.
Please don't worry about me. For I am in God's care, and when the time is right, I will meet you there.
Enjoy the life you have. Cherish every single day.
Just wanted you to know, I got here ok.*
