Memory
of*

There is an open gate at the end of the road.
Through which each must go alone.
There is a light we cannot see
Our father claims His own.
Beyond the gate our loved one finds
Happiness and rest;
And there is comfort in the thought
That a loving God knows best.

Obituary

Michael Jackson was born October 31, 1964 to the late Lynwood and Nora Jackson in Goldsboro, North Carolina.

At the age of three, he came to Newark, NJ where he attended Morton Street School, Charleston Street School and graduated from Malcolm X Shabazz High School in 1980.

He was employed by Two Guys Department Store and the Meadowlands in Rutherford, NJ.

Michael was a fun loving person and enjoyed playing around with his nieces and nephews. He had a warm personality and always beside his mother doing whatever she asked of him. His favorite saying “Yeah I said it!”

He was preceded in death by his father Lynwood, Sr., brother, Lynwood Earl, Jr. and sister, Alice Cassandra Jackson.

He leaves to mourn his passing: his devoted and loving mother, Nora Jackson; three brothers, Larry, James and Vincent (Jacqueline) Jackson; one sister, Linda Waters of Queens, NY; four nephews, Malik, Antwan, Hakiem Jackson and Jihad Wright; four nieces, Brianna Gardner, Ebony Jackson, NaAzah McGuire and Kyra Jackson; one god-sister, Dr. Alnissa Carter of Raleigh, NC; six aunts, Bernell Herring of Greensboro, NC, Janice Gardner of Goldsboro, NC, Geraldine Ranson (Joseph) of Alabaster, AL, Nettie Gardner and Louise Wilson of Newburgh, NY and Mae Bell Jackson of LaGrange, NC; three uncles, Gurney Lee Gardner Goldsboro, NC, Green Thomas of Newburgh, NY and Joseph Ranson of Alabaster, AL; and a host of cousins, family and friends.
