Remembering The Life

Lenton C. Brown, a son of the late Cletha Brown and Parrie L. Jacobs-Brown entered this world on June 20, 1942 in America, Georgia.

At a young age, the Brown family moved to Palm Beach County, Florida in search of better economic opportunities.

Brown (as he was fondly called by many) received his formal education in the public schools of Palm Beach County and was a graduate of Roosevelt High School. After graduation, he was drafted into the US Army. After completion of duty of service with the army, he returned to West Palm Beach. Brown decided to further his education and attended Florida A & M in Tallahassee, Florida.

In the 70's, Brown moved with his brother and family to Brooklyn, NY seeking better opportunities. He furthered his education at NY Community College and earned an Associate Degree in Applied Science.

Brown has been retired from NYC Transit Authority for over twenty years. For several years, he also worked part time for NYC Board of Education assisting in the Early Childhood Education Department. He was a licensed real estate broker and tax preparer.

In July 1971, he wed Rheatis Thompson. This union had one daughter.

Brown was an avid sports fan and loved all sorts of sports and played sports throughout school and college. He received various awards and was featured in news articles for his talent in basketball. Brown was an opinionated person and stood steadfast in his beliefs and opinions. He would lend or assist anyone with a helping hand but, often times under the condition that the task is performed at his discretion.

On Saturday, March 1, 2014 at Brookdale Hospital, God Almighty in His infinite ways called Lenton C. Brown from his earthly life.

23rd Psalm

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
