

Weep Not For Me

*Weep not for me though I am gone;
into that gentle night.*

*Grieve if you will but not for long,
upon my soul's sweet flight.*

*I am at peace,
my soul's at rest.*

There is no need for tears.

*For with your love I was blessed;
for all those many years.*

*There is no pain,
I suffer not,*

The fear now all is gone.

Put now these things out of your thoughts.

In your memory I live on.

*Remember not my fight for breath;
remember not the strife.*

*Please do not dwell upon my death,
but celebrate my life.*

Amen

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.

Mary Curtis was born July 30, 1926 in Dorchester, South Carolina. The second child and youngest child of Helen Mays departed this life on February 28, 2014, at the South Mountain Healthcare and Rehabilitation Center.

Mary moved with her family to Daytona Beach in the late twenties. There she attended public school and graduated from Campbell Street High School. She connected herself to the New Mt. Zion Baptist Church under the Pastorate of the late George Sumner. She was united in Holy matrimony to James Curtis in 1943 and to this union one child was born.

In the early seventies Mary moved to New Jersey to be near her family. She love life and people but most of all her family. She was deeply devoted to her immediate and extended family and friends.

Mary was preceded in death by her husband, James Curtis, one brother, Louis Russell Ellis.

She leaves to mourn her passing and cherish her memory: one daughter, Wanda Robinson; son-in-law, Cleveland Robinson; one granddaughter, Linda R. Robinson; one great grandson, Byron C. Robinson; a step-sister, Juanita "Rose" Harrington; one nephew, Louis Ellis, Jr.; and a host of other relatives and friends.

We all love her and there will always be a special place in our hearts for our Mary. May God Bless and keep her in his love.
