A portrait of a woman with short, dark, curly hair, wearing a red sleeveless top and a necklace. She is smiling slightly. The background is a soft-focus image of a sunset or sunrise over a body of water, with two white doves flying in the sky. The woman is positioned as if standing on a set of stone steps that lead up towards the horizon.

Obituary

Jimmie Ruth Gee, was born in Union, South Carolina on November 30, 1933 to Henry and Janie Jeter.

She attended Union County Schools and married Edward Gee in August of 1957. From their union came six beautiful children, Shirley Foggie of Laurens, SC, George H. Jeter of Union, SC, Edward Gee, Jr., Lois Jean Eastmond, Sandra Gee of Englewood, NJ and Jenetta Gee of Englewood, NJ.

Jimmie grew up in Union, SC, one of twelve children. Throughout her life, Jimmie will always be remembered as a sweet, kind and caring person. Also known as “Neighborhood Mom”, not only raising her children, but allowing numerous kids in the neighborhood to call her house “home”. She had many hobbies including fishing with her husband, tending to her bountiful garden and collecting elephant figurines. Jimmie always made sure her family was taken care of first. She taught and showed her children many lessons in their lives. Most importantly, she taught them what a mother’s love looks like, feels like and that a mother’s love will always be there to smooth the way.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Henry and Janie, sister, Bertha McBeth and four brothers, Robert, John, Amos and James Jeter and two children, Edward Gee, Jr. and Lois Jean Eastmond.

She leaves behind: her beloved husband of fifty-seven years, Edward Gee; three sisters, Sallie Mae Vinson, Leola Jeter and Elizabeth Jones (WT); four children, Shirley Foggie (Austin Foggie), George H. Jeter, Sandra Gee and Jenetta Gee; fifteen grandchildren, eleven great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

My Mother

My mother is a woman like no other.
She gave me life, nurtured me, taught me, dressed me, fought for me, held me, shouted at me, kissed me, but most importantly loved me unconditionally.

There are not enough words I can say to describe just how important my mother is to me and what a powerful influence she continues to be.

Mother, I love you

God Saw You Getting Tired

God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be
So He put His arms around you and whispered "Come With Me."

With tearful eyes I watched you, slowly fade away,
Although I loved you dearly, I would not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating, hard working hands at rest.

God broke my heart to prove to me,
He only takes the best.
