

In Loving Memory of

A close-up portrait of Dorothy Lee Glenn, an elderly woman with a warm smile, wearing glasses and a textured straw hat. The portrait is framed by a decorative border of small dark dots. The background of the entire memorial card is a soft-focus field of pink and purple flowers.

Dorothy Lee Glenn

Sunrise
July 7, 1929

Sunset
March 16, 2014

Obituary

This is the day that the Lord has made, we will rejoice and be glad in it.

Psalm 118:24

Dorothy Lee Glenn, daughter of the late Eddie and Olivia Jones was born on July 7, 1929 in Macon, Georgia. Preceded in death by one sister, Mamie, she also has one brother, Henry Jones.

Educated in Newark, New Jersey Dorothy graduated from Arts High School where she studied sewing. She worked for General Electric Company for many years but retired from Technical Wire.

Dottie, as she was known by all, was married to Harry Glenn (deceased) in 1961, from that union, one son was born Harry Glenn Jr. Dottie was a doting mom who loved her son dearly. He affectionately called her “Mother” and she took great pride in that title.

An active member of Metropolitan Baptist Church until her health began to fail; Dottie not only served on the Service Guild Missionaries but also regularly attended the Senior Center at Bethany Church as well. She was a huge supporter of the arts and loved attending plays and going to the movies.

Dottie loved to sew and most of the beautiful outfits she sported, she hand made herself. She always looked first-rate: clothes, shoes, jewelry, a little makeup along with her signature hat was how you always saw her. Meticulous not only in style, she could spend hours in the produce aisle carefully selecting choice green beans, collard greens and spotless bananas. She loved walnut ice cream, pistachios and Mr. Good bar candy.

Dottie was a loving person and would often end a sentence or conversation by saying “what you gonna do?” Her smile would light up the room wherever she went.

Dorothy leaves to cherish her memory, her beloved son, Harry Jr.; her brother, Henry; an adoptive daughter she lovingly called “Symphony”, Cynthia McMillan; many cousins, nieces, nephews and a host of friends.

She will be sadly missed.

Service

Friday, March 21, 2014 - 10:00 a.m.

METROPOLITAN BAPTIST CHURCH

149 Springfield Ave.
Newark, New Jersey

Order of Service

Processional

Selection ..... “Blessed Assurance” - pg 27

Scripture Reading ..... Charlotte

Old Testament - Psalm 23

New Testament - Revelations 21:1-5

Selection ..... “Hold To God’s Unchanging Hand” - Pg 248

Prayer

Obituary & Acknowledgments

Remarks

Selection ..... “Amazing Grace” - Pg 135

Eulogy

Recessional ..... “I’ll Fly Away”

Interment

Fairmount Cemetery
Newark, New Jersey

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

Acknowledgement

The family wishes to express their sincere thanks and appreciation for all acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy that was shown to them during this time of bereavement.

Professional Services by:
Whigham Funeral Home

580 Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd.

Newark, New Jersey 07102

973-622-6872

Carolyn Whigham, Director

