Reflections of Life

Inell Starks was born August 9, 1930 to the late Lorenzo Mobry and Lucille (Ingram) Johnson.

Inell moved to Hackensack, NJ over fifty-five years ago. She worked as a Nursing Aide at Bergen Pines Hospital in Paramus, NJ. She also worked as a housekeeper at Fairleigh Dickerson University until she retired.

Inell loved God. She was a born again Christian. She attended Victory Temple Church Word Ministries in Newark, NJ until her illness, under the leadership of Pastor Ernest Leonard.

Inell was a true homemaker. She loved to sew and babysit children. She also loved spending time with her grand and great grandchildren.

Inell was predeceased by her husband, Curtis Starks, mother, Lucille (Ingram) Johnson and father, Lorenzo Mobry.

Inell is survived by her devoted son, Henry Lee Starks, who took care of her until her passing; daughter, Alice Starks; son, Daniel Starks; sister, Barbara Dupree; granddaughters, Daniele Starks, Betty Joyner and Tracy Pollard; grandsons, Henry K. Starks and Daniel Starks, Jr.; great granddaughters, Janell Joyner, Ashley Joyner and Zyleena Pollard; great grandsons, Andre Joyner, Jr., James Pollard, Jr. and Christopher Pollard; daughter-in-law, Mary Starks; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

*Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
