

Another Time @ Another Place

*Don't spend too much time in mourning,
Tears are for the sad;
I left to be with Jesus
And this should make you glad.
Don't waste your hours in grieving,
No need to feel distress;
I'm tired of life's frustrations
And had to get some rest.
Don't vex yourself with questions
Or try to reason why
Life here for me was ended,
It came my time to die.
Don't lose the love I gave you
Feed it with your care;
Grow it with devotion
And spread it everywhere.
Don't fret because my leaving
Came in such a way;
We'll have another meeting
In God's eternal day.*

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.

Obituary

Virginia Day was born February 2, 1921 to Nellie Mae Oliver Bowling and Luke Thaddeus Bowling in Chase City, Virginia.

Virginia attended Clarkville Elementary School at an early age. She moved to New Jersey and completed her education. Virginia accepted Christ as her personal Savior at an early age. She was a dedicated member of United Fellowship Baptist Church, Asbury Park, NJ. She also attended General Assembly Church/House of Mercy Mission, here in Newark, NJ.

She was married to James T. Day and had five children, Walter (Elma), James (Jean C.) Jerry, Bruce, Brenda and Thomas.

Virginia had a great love for traveling and meeting new people. During her last few months she got the pleasure of making rhymes. She often stated that she could write a best selling novel about her life because her life was very interesting.

Virginia leaves to cherish: four grandchildren, James Edward, Derek, Tesha and Felicia; five great grandchildren, Jayla, Noah, Trinity, Gavin James and Skylar; one sister, Juanita Jones (James R.); four brothers, Luther Bowling (Cora), Forest E. Bowling (Ellen), Carl E. Bowling (Mildred) and Garland Bowling (Delores); five sisters-in-law, Mary, Doris, May Willis, Ann Marie and Margie; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Virginia was predeceased by three sisters, Bernice Toone (Jackson, Georgia Hayes (John Henry) and marion Hayes (Malachi).
