Obituary

Bevins “Juncy” Reynolds began his life in Newark, NJ to Authoroses Sheppard and Vivian Reynolds on September 4th 1964. Bevins was raised in Newark and educated in the Newark School system.

As a young man, Bevins worked alongside his father (deceased) and his brother in construction and plumbing. Bevins also dabbled in cooking and sewing. Bevins passion was old cars, he collected car magazines and one day hoped of restoring a old car to take his mom for a ride. His other dream was to take the family across country in a Winnebago to Montana. Bevins loved music especially oldies, but he would rock to all kinds of music. Bevins loved fried chicken wings, which he ate almost every night.

Bevins received Christ Jesus and we can take solace in knowing he is alive with Christ. Bevins was a young man who would give all he had when he knew there was a need, he stood that test of time for thirty years of his life.

Bevins left us too soon without seeing his dreams come true and doing the things he most wanted to do in life. Bevins died at his fight of faith, but his illness took him away too soon.

Bevins never married and does not leave behind any children. He leaves behind his mother and brother, Sawand Reynolds; his aunts, Catherine and Renee; his uncle, Frank; his cousins, nieces and one nephew; and a host of other family members.

We shall see you again.

The Road To Eternity

*Life is but a stopping place,
A pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road
To sweet Eternity.*

*We all have different journeys,
Different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn something,
But never meant to stay.....*

*Our destination is a place far
Greater than we know,
For some, the journey's quicker,
For some, the journey's slow.
And when the journey finally ends,
We'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace,
Together with the Lord.*

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
