Obituary

Gene Houston Bey, Sr. was born on July 26, 1936 in the City of Summit, New Jersey. One of twelve children of the late Peter and Adah Houston Bey.

He attended Jefferson Grammar School in Summit. He loved the life of out door nature: fishing, hiking, camping and horse back riding. His family moved to Newark, New Jersey in 1950, where he also attended Grammar School and Trade School for Refrigeration, Air Condition, Radio, Television and Plumbing. He was inspired with Self Development, he made his own community business as a handyman.

He married the late Alva Houston Bey his wife in 1957. Together they produced four sons, six grandchildren and three great grandchildren. The Genealogy of the Houston Bey Family has produced seven generations since 1865. Just let his noble life be straight and inspiration on to you to carry on the name of the HOUSTON BEY FAMILY. Peace and Love.
