Reflections of Life

Alton “Butch” Dubose was born on July 9, 1947 at Englewood Hospital Englewood, NJ.

As a youth-young adult, he was a member of the Universal Hagar’s Spiritual Church Hackensack. He served as an “Altar Boy” under the leadership of the late Rev. Mack Mitchell and Rev. Mary Hatchett.

Butch attended the Paterson Public School System through the 8th grade. He went on to attend Eastside High School where he was involved in the Field-Track team as a Sprinter. He later enlisted in the US Army from February 1967 to February 1969 where he served in the Vietnam War. He received an honorable discharge.

He departed this earthly life on Friday, March 28, 2014 at his home in Hackensack, NJ.

Butch leaves memories to be cherished by: his sister, Jacqueline Dubose Harris; brother, Randolph A. Dubose, Sr.; two aunts, Priscilla Prayer-Crowe and Ivory White; uncle, Randolph Dubose, Jr.; an adopted daughter, Jia Gandy; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and loving friends.

God's Garden

*God looked around His garden and found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth and saw your tired face.*

*He put His arms around you and lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.*

*He saw the road was getting rough and the hills were hard to climb,
So He closed your weary eyelids and whispered "Peace be Thine."*

*It broke our hearts to lose you but you did not go alone,
For part of us went with you
the day God called you home.*

Acknowledgement

The family of Alton "Butch" Dubose acknowledges with deepest gratitude and deep appreciation your prayers, visits, cards, and other expressions of love, comfort and encouragement. May God Bless You All.
