Obituary

Denisha T. Williams affectionately known as “Deebo” entered into eternal rest on April 6, 2014. She was the first of nine children born to George Williams and Shlene (Lena) Butler on July 20, 1977. Denisha also has a loving stepfather, Terrence Giles.

Denisha was educated in the New York City School System where she excelled in multiple academics. She later attended BMCC where she achieved her associate degree in Human Services and economics. Denisha worked ten years for the New York State Department of Mental Health and Hygiene.

Denisha was known for her laugh and her childlike giggles. She brightened up any room she entered. Denisha had many pleasures. Some of her pleasures were decorating and planning events, spending quality time with family and friends, and cooking. Some of her favorite foods to cook were chicken lasagna, mac & cheese and lamb chops.

A good heart and a laugh to remember, Denisha touched the hearts of everyone she came in contact with. This is one of the reasons that she entered into the professional career and became a certified Nurse Assistant.

Denisha was preceded in death by her grandfather, George Washington Bultler, her uncle, Robert “Bob” Brown, and her godfather, Fred Kalishman. She leaves behind: a loving grandmother, Henrietta Butler; parents, Shlene Butler and George Williams; six sisters, Nakinda, Ebony, Sateria, Iesha, Nay-Nay and Candice; eight brothers, George, Terrence, Barkim, Bless, Tystfyr, Quadir, U-Majesty and Barhshay; nephew, Timothy Butler; godmother, Ezeta; god sister, Raff; god brother, Makeley; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

If Roses Grow In Heaven

If roses in heaven, Lord please pick a bunch for us, place them in Denisha's arms and tell her they're from us. Tell her that we love her and miss her, and when she turns to smile, place a kiss upon her cheek and hold her for awhile. Because remembering her is easy, we do it every day. But there's an ache within our heart that will never go away.

Acknowledgement

*The family acknowledges with deep appreciation all acts of kindness extended to them during this bereavement hour.
May God bless you for all your thoughtfulness and concern.*
