Obituary

Mary Ellen Bacon-Noel the daughter of Mary Frances Brown-Roberts and the late James Bacon born October 30, 1945, Daisy, Georgia. Fondly known by her family as Ellen, graduated in 1963 from Sophronia M. Tompkins High School, Savannah, Georgia where she ran track, enjoyed crocheting, needle point, knitting and cooking. After graduation Ellen attended Savannah State College, Savannah, Georgia.

In 1952 Ellen, her mother and grandmother moved from Diasy, Georgia to Savannah, Georgia. In 1966 Ellen, her son, Arnie, her mother and grandmother moved to Rahway, New Jersey. Ellen met and married Daniel Noel. Ellen became a Foster Parent and raised several children; she attended Union County College; Elizabeth General School of Nursing; and graduated from Sawyer Business School. In 1996 Ellen joined Second Baptist Church.

Ellen was employed at Robert Wood Johnson University Hospital @ Rahway, formally known as Rahway Hospital, as a Unit Secretary. She was also employed at Ashbrook Nursing & Rehabilitation Center, Scotch Plains, New Jersey, as an Aide.

After a long illness, Ellen went home to be with the Lord, Thursday evening, April 10, 2014.

Ellen leaves to cherish her memories: two sons, Josef A. Brown and Jasson L. Noel, both of Rahway; her mother, Mary Frances Roberts of Rahway; one grandson, Qua'zere Noel of Newark, New Jersey; one foster daughter, Catrinia Campbell, Cherry Hill, New Jersey; two goddaughters, Deborah Jones and Shonda Orr, both of Savannah, Georgia; a host of cousins and friends.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*
