Obituary

Henry Robert Thomas, Sr., was born in Harlem Hospital, New York City, New York on November 17, 1951 to Leroy and Charlotte Thomas-Petty.

He attended the New York School System until he was fifteen years old. Then he migrated to Richmond, Virginia and attended their school system until he graduated. Henry, then enlisted into the United States Army on July 14, 1969 as infantrymen. Later obtaining the rank of Sergeant. He was honorable discharged from the Army, he then joined the National Guards.

Henry was employed many years with the Metropolitan Museum of Art and the Department of Veteran's Affairs.

Henry was a loving, caring and given person. He was always concerned about his mother, children and grandchildren. Henry loved to tell jokes, and was a happy person. He enjoyed life. He was a hard worker. Whatever he set his mind to, he did very well.

Later on he married Margaret Thomas. This union created one son, named Henry Robert Thomas, Jr.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Charlotte Thomas-Petty; three sons, Sidney Shaw, Jeffrey and Henry Robert Thomas, Jr. (Marjorie); one step daughter, Asia; three brothers, Kelly Thomas (Yolanda), Leonard Thomas (Minnie) and Lawrence Thomas; one sister, Thelma Thomas; two aunts, Bessie Murchinson and Ellen; host of grandchildren; also, a friend, Margaret Thomas; and a host of other relatives and friends. He will be greatly missed.

Henry is predeceased by his father, Leroy Thomas and his brother, Leroy Thomas, Jr.

Loving Submitted by the family.

Psalm 91

He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High Shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the Lord, "He is my refuge and my fortress; My God, in Him I will trust." Surely He shall deliver you from the snare of the fowler And from the perilous pestilence. He shall cover you with His feathers, And under His wings you shall take refuge; His truth shall be your shield and buckler. You shall not be afraid of the terror by night, Nor of the arrow that flies by day, Nor of the pestilence that walks in darkness, Nor of the destruction that lays waste at noonday. A thousand may fall at your side, And ten thousand at your right hand; But it shall not come near you. Only with your eyes shall you look, And see the reward of the wicked. Because you have made the Lord, who is my refuge, Even the Most High, your dwelling place, No evil shall befall you, Nor shall any plague come near your dwelling; For He shall give His angels charge over you, To keep you in all your ways. In their hands they shall bear you up, Lest you dash your foot against a stone. You shall tread upon the lion and the cobra, The young lion and the serpent you shall trample underfoot. "Because he has set his love upon Me, therefore I will deliver him; I will set him on high, because he has known My name. He shall call upon Me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him and honor him. With long life I will satisfy him, And show him My salvation."
