Obituary

Stavonne Henyde Hunter-Williams, was born to the late Elaine Scott and the late Lawrence Hunter at Metropolitan Hospital Center on December 27, 1946.

She attended the New York City Public School system and graduated from Morris High School. She spent her teenage years in the Bronx, NY and her early adult hood years on 116th Street in Harlem, NY where she met James Hunter and through that relationship her eldest child, Dahoud Hunter was born on June 25, 1969 who preceded her in death on February 27, 2014.

Stavonne went on later to meet and marry Robert Castleton Williams, III in 1982 and through that union her two daughters, Nija and Natane Williams were born. She worked various retail jobs to support her family where she was meticulous in gift wrapping which was something she loved to do. She was very active in the community where she lived for several years.

Stavonne was a kind person with a heart of gold who would do anything she could to help someone in need. She opened her heart, arms and door to any and everyone who needed a hand, she also helped raise her first cousins, George, Enyde and Clyce as well as her second cousin, Codi. She was just a great person at heart who was willing to do anything she could for anyone who crossed her path. She was just a great person overall and will truly be missed dearly.

She leaves to mourn: her husband, Robert Castleton Williams, III; her two daughters, Nija and Natane Williams; her grandchildren, Jhaymes, Najee, Jhayna, Janiece, Nicholas, Christopher, Majien, Keanu, Skky, Jadon, A'zadi and Denem; four sisters, four brothers, three first cousins, her significant other of twenty-five years, Eric Rice and a host of other nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

To Those I Love

To those I love and those that love me, When I am gone, release me, let me go I have so many things to see and do You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears Be happy that we had so many years. I gave you my love, you can only guess How much you gave me in happiness I thank you for the love you each have shown But now it's time I travel alone So grieve for a while for me if you must Then let your grief be comforted by trust.

It's only for a while that we must part So bless the memories within your heart I won't be far away, for life goes on So if you need me, call and I will come Though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near And if you listen with your heart you'll hear All my love around you so soft and clear And then, when you must come this way alone I'll greet you with a smile and say, "Welcome Home."
