Obituary

Marie Nixon, went to be with the Lord on Thursday, April 17, 2014 at Calvary Hospital. Marie was born in Bronx, New York on August 8, 1929 to the late Mr. Henry and Verna Nixon.

Marie was educated in the New York Public School system. Then she started working for the New York phone company as a phone operator until she retired.

Marie was a very strong and independent woman whom walked to her own rhythm, she loved to party, travel and shop. Even though Marie had a very tough exterior, she had a very loving heart and was willing to help out whenever she could.

What words can be used to describe Marie? Kind, funny, and honorary. More than any of these, the word that describes her best is “LOVE” the love she gave without wanting anything in return. She had a special capacity and effortless, natural ability in this regard. Marie was a beautiful person with no birth children, during her journey of unselfish life she obtained several children, who loved her deeply. To Marie her friends were family a testament to who she was and how she loved.

Marie was one of four children, whom she leaves to mourn: her beloved sister, Provie Nixon; several nieces, nephews, grandnieces; and a host of family and friends.
