Obituary

Welcome & Thanks for all attending

Timothy G. Holley, succumbed to the enemy death on April 14, 2014 in Hospice at the Haven at Bellvue Hospital. He was born on June 17, 1936 in New York City, New York, son of Mildred Holley and his father Henry.

He is preceded in death by his mother, Mildred Holley.

Timothy is survived by his two sons, Steve Holden and Timothy Jenkins (Esther Jenkins); six grandchildren, Steve Jr., Aquil, Jade and Jamail Holden and Darrell and Jemiah Jenkins. Also two great grandchildren, Kay and Josh; his beloved aunts, Loretta, Anita, Ruby and Kay; uncle, Walter; and a host of cousins. He also leaves behind his trusted and beloved companion and soul mate, Ella Edwards.

Timothy attended the Union Baptist Church on 145th St. He attended Dewitt Clinton High School.

He worked at Atlas US Cloth Sparging Corp. for many, many years where he retired from and served as a union steward.

Life is a journey which leads you to who knows where filled with many unknowns. However, it's not how you start, but how you finish. He finished his journey with faith and trust in God.

He loved and cared for his fellow man greatly. Timothy will be greatly missed.
