Obituary

Mr. Frank Joe Taylor, was born in St. Matthews, South Carolina to Jake Taylor and Maude Brown Taylor on November 27, 1936. He attended John Ford High School where he was a football star. He played the center position, and he was a “lettered” man. After his parents passed he and his sister, Ms. Claydelle Taylor (deceased) were reared by their grandmother, Missy Taylor, and their aunt, Mrs. Hallie Brunson. Many a day Missy Taylor could be seen around St. Matthews, proudly wearing her grandson’s football jersey.

After graduating from John Ford High School, Frank served in the United States Air Force, and in 1958 he was honorably discharged. In 1961, he was joined in holy matrimony to Barbara Jean Frazier, also of South Carolina. They settled in New York City and began raising their children, Myra L. Taylor and Carlton T. Taylor (deceased).

Frank spent most of his career as an employee of the New York City Transit Authority, working his way up from bus operator to dispatcher to superintendent, a coveted administrative position. After he retired, Frank started tending bar. He enjoyed entertaining and being entertained, and he loved sports: baseball, basketball, and most of all football.

He was a loyal friend and a very wise man, and he would tell a joke in a minute. Frank was the essence of charisma. He is not gone. He lives in the hearts and minds of all who loved him.

He is survived by: his longtime companion, Ms. Gwen Jones; his daughters, Myra Lucretia Taylor and Tammy Taylor-Jones and Tammy’s partner, Undray Luster; his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Sharon Taylor; his grandchildren, Carlton T. Taylor, Jr., Carlif T. Taylor, Quincy Frank Jones, Tareena Taylor Jones and Josiah Joe Luster; his nephew, Jay Taylor, and a large family of loving relatives and many devoted friends.

I Hear the Trumpet Through The Storm

I hear a sound. It sounds like a trumpet playing through a storm, a storm that has been passing for days and weeks. I'm alone and have no one to turn to for help. I remember the prayers I was taught when I was a child to call upon Jesus' name for help and guidance through troubled times. It is Him I Hear, the trumpet through the storm, letting me know that help is on the way.
