A Letter To My Son

Kenon D' Troy Williams

My first born, the apple of my eye, God blessed me with a healthy, bouncing baby boy on Christmas Eve, what glorious day. You were my right hand, my rock, my right when I was wrong, and always had my back no matter what. You was born with a heart of gold, always gave a helping hand to the young and old. You never told anyone no, you never bothered anyone. You was a loner as long as you had your video games you was happy. And you was always happy when it came down to the kids, oh how you loved the kids especially the apple of your eye, Kayla. When she came into our lives you loved and took care of her like she was your very own. And oh how much Kayla loved you too. Well, Kenon I have princess, Kayla right here with the family, so she can see her Kenon and say goodbye. She will never ever forget you. I will truly miss my bestfriend, I know you are with uncle Robert and aunt Gisele cause they came to me and told me that you were going to be alright and that you will be watching over me, and at that point, Kenon I smiled and I said you are in good hands. I will see you when I get there, and go be with God and receive your wings, soldier.

Love, Mommy

Reflections of Life

Kenon Di'Troy Williams, was born December 24, 1977, in Harlem, NY to Cheryl Williams. He graduated from Manhattan Center of Mathematics & Science High School in 1995.

Kenon was a lifelong resident of Harlem. He was his mother's right hand, the apple of her eyes, her first born, he was kindhearted, always ready to give a helping hand to all.

Kenon was complex, yet very simplistic. He enjoyed the pleasure of video games and spending time with his friends. His memory will remain in our thoughts and hearts. We have been blessed with his presence in our lives.

Kenon leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Cheryl; his brothers, Tony, Corey, Kendall; one nephew, Amir; one uncle, Kevin; one aunt, Evelyn; first cousins, Shaniqua, Kali, Khalif, Kashif, Jannaye and Jayla; foster child, Kayla; godson, DéAndre; grandparents, Henry and Lillian Williams; best friend, Raymond; a host of relatives and friends. (He leaves us to join his uncle, Robert Williams in heaven).

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

*My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
