Obituary

Eufemia Magan, 85, died on April 24, 2014, with her family by her side in Calvary Hospital. She was born November 11, 1928, in Bocas del Toro, Panama. Her father was a successful farmer and business man, and her mother was a preacher and a teacher.

She was an active member of the Baptist Church in Bocas del Toro where she used to play the pipe organ. Eufemia could accomplish anything she set her mind to. She was an excellent dressmaker. She used to sew her own curtains, she made her own wedding dress, her daughter's first communion dress, and her own chair covers. She was an electrician, a plumber, a carpenter, a nurse and most of all a hard working woman. She was also a very lively person.

She was married to Mr. Honorio Magan Ortiz in the Baptist Church in Cristobal Canal Zone located in Colon, Panama. They have eight children which only four remains.

She is survived by four nephews and one niece who she loved dearly like her own daughter, "Lola". She is also survived by: her four children, Carlos, Hermelinda, Omar and Roberto. She left behind nineteen grandchildren, Yamba, Jorge, Yesenia, Femi, Joseito, Victor, Carrie, Tanisha, Carlos, Wladimir, Jasmin, Roberto, Oswaldo, Honorio, Darrel, Mirna, Victor, Gabriel, Reynaldo; thirty great grandchildren; three wonderful daughters-in-law, Rosario, Julia and Maria; and countless friends who she got along with very well.

Psalm 91

He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High Shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the Lord, "He is my refuge and my fortress; My God, in Him I will trust." Surely He shall deliver you from the snare of the fowler And from the perilous pestilence. He shall cover you with His feathers, And under His wings you shall take refuge; His truth shall be your shield and buckler. You shall not be afraid of the terror by night, Nor of the arrow that flies by day, Nor of the pestilence that walks in darkness, Nor of the destruction that lays waste at noonday. A thousand may fall at your side, And ten thousand at your right hand; But it shall not come near you. Only with your eyes shall you look, And see the reward of the wicked. Because you have made the Lord, who is my refuge, Even the Most High, your dwelling place, No evil shall befall you, Nor shall any plague come near your dwelling; For He shall give His angels charge over you, To keep you in all your ways. In their hands they shall bear you up, Lest you dash your foot against a stone. You shall tread upon the lion and the cobra, The young lion and the serpent you shall trample underfoot. "Because he has set his love upon Me, therefore I will deliver him; I will set him on high, because he has known My name. He shall call upon Me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him and honor him. With long life I will satisfy him, And show him My salvation."
