JAMES PAUL SCOTT

“Scotty”

*“I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the Faith”
2 Timothy 4:7*

James Paul Scott was born August 21, 1932 to the late Walter and Viola Davis Scott in Gadsden, South Carolina. He departed this life Friday, April 25, 2014 at the age of eighty-one in the Lehigh Valley Hospital, Allentown, Pennsylvania.

James was educated in the East Orange Public School system. After graduating from high school, he served in the U.S. Navy until receiving a honorable discharge. He then joined the East Orange Police Department served as a Lieutenant until his retirement in 1989.

James met Vivian Haley-Cook and during their fifteen years of commitment a son, Damon Milo Scott was born.

James later met and married the late Patricia Ann Jackson and resided in East Stroudsburg, PA until his death.

James, as we all know was always well dressed and his favorite pastime was the race track, Atlantic City, NJ and bowling.

James leaves to cherish his memory: his devoted sons, Damon M. Scott, Shawn C. Jackson (Joana) and Stacey M. Jackson; a brother, Edward Scott; five grandchildren, Damon M. Scott, Jr., Zykeim Jenkins, Shawn C. Jackson, II, Andre M. Jackson and Martin A. Jackson; a life-long friend, Rev. Vivian Cook; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Poem for My Father James

His name was “James”
(Scotty) and now he’s gone.
But he lived a good life as a
son, father, husband,
brother, uncle, grandfather and policeman.

A nicer Guy you’ve never seen. And a heart as, “Big”
as any Giant could be.

And he showed it in the “love” he gave, to me, family and friends.

So now... if you listen closely,
You’ll hear him make his...late “plead”
My name is “James” (Scotty) and now I’m “gone”
But please don’t cry for me, cause I’m alright you see.

I’ve gone to “Heaven” above...
To be with God, my other family members and my sweet love...Patricia
(PJ)
Damon!
