

Smile

*Everywhere you went, your face glared that pretty smile on your face
Surely look like gold*

*Smile, for God's arms stands open
Dear child, He has chosen
You as a token.*

*My-the rainbow has many colors and
Heaven's door is just bubbling
Sharon that smile of yours
makes us all snuggle*

*God has called you home
We will not mourn - he has open the window of the sky
And we shall meet bye and bye*

*Smile, keep smiling you have traveled the Extra mile- surely my child you are finished
With your trials.*

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.

Obituary

Sharon Shorter-Johnson was born on April 22, 1963 in Newark, New Jersey to Lurine Shorter and the late James Shorter.

Sharon attended the Newark Public School Bragaw Avenue Elementary. She also attended Weequahic High School. She was employed at the Prudential Stadium. She was also employed at the First Occupational Center in Orange, NJ.

Sharon was married to Steven Johnson. She was the mother of four children, one preceded her in death (Jameel Johnson).

Sharon united with the Mt. Pleasant Missionary Baptist Church at an early age. She served on the Usher Ministry and was a member of the Sunday School for many years.

Sharon loved to laugh, take pictures and she also loved music. She was a Jack of All Trades.

She leaves to cherish her loving memory: her children, Nafeesah Johnson (Dorrell), Nyjirah Felton (David) and Inayah Williams; mother, Lurine Shorter of Statesboro, GA; brothers, Timothy Shorter and Steve Shorter (Amal); sister, Lawanda Shorter (Lavant) all of Newark, NJ; grandchildren, Naji, Tajee, Aytiana, Willie, Rhonda, Nydia, Zaria, Equan and NyJon; aunts, Linda Lee and Marie Ashley; uncle, Darvin Donaldson (Gertrude); and a host of nephews, cousins, other family members and friends.
