Obituary

Mr. Neville Nathaniel Henry of West Orange, New Jersey went home to be with the Lord on Thursday, May 1, 2014.

Neville was born in Clarendon, Jamaica, West Indies on August 15, 1928 to Francella and Clinton Henry. After his high school graduation he was hired as a bus driver for McCauley's Bus Co. in Kingston, Jamaica. While working in Kingston he met his beautiful wife, Delis. They were married in September of 1968. Neville and his wife came to the United States in 1969 to seek new opportunities. They settled in New Jersey. He was soon hired at Worthington Pumps in East Orange, New Jersey as a Machinist. He worked there until the company closed. He was then hired at Curtis Wright in Fairleigh, New Jersey as a Machinist, where he worked faithfully until he retired in 1998.

Neville enjoyed spending time with family and friends. He enjoyed playing cards, dominoes, watching classic westerns, and going to baseball games. His favorite team was the Mets. He was a true Mets fan. He especially loved reading and studying the Bible. He loved animals and often watched documentaries on the Discovery Channel. However, his most sincere passion and love was for his family.

He was a loving father, grandfather, and great grandfather. A truly exceptional husband and caregiver to his wife, Delis, until the time of her passing.

He leaves behind to cherish the wonderful memories he inspired: his children, Jacqueline, Paul, Beverly and Joseph; thirteen grandchildren, Ja-Nelle, Ja-Nay and Aaron of NJ, Damien, Neville, JoNeil, JoNeikah, Jokirah, Jokiliah, Jore', Joseph, Jr., Richard and Kimami all of Canada; great grandchildren, Ja-Zara and Divine of NJ, Noah, Kynneddy, Avalynn and Quizon of GA, Valentina, Tayah and Iyshia of Canada; son-in-law, Harvey (Jacqueline's husband); two brothers, Esley and Samuel; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
