

Celebration for the Life of

Quasim Zaid Marquise McKinney

July 19, 1995 - May 11, 2014

Reflections of Life

Quasim Zaid McKinney, affectionately known as “Kazz” was born July 19, 1995 in Passaic, NJ. He was the third son born to Benny (Bilaal) McKinney and Brenda (Bunting) McKinney.

Quasim attended Lincoln Technical Institution in Mahwah and graduated from Passaic High School in June 2013.

He was a big fan of the Carolina Panthers and an even bigger fan of the Oklahoma City Thunders. He loved music, but his real passion was Dirt Bikes. He had just recently expressed a desire to attend school for motorcycle mechanics and was due to receive his first Dirt Bike the day he departed this life.

His warm personality and overwhelming smile captured the hearts of everyone, causing him to make friends everywhere he went.

Quasim was predeceased by his paternal grandparents, Fred, Sr. and Clara B. McKinney, maternal grandparents, Deacon and Deaconess Otis and Barbara Bunting.

“Kazz” took flight to be with our Lord on Sunday, May 11, 2014.

Quasim leaves to cherish his memories: his parents, Benny (Bilaal) and Brenda (Bunting) McKinney; two brothers, Bilaal F. McKinney and Keshawn J. McKinney; precious niece, Baileigh M. McKinney; special friends, Kashawn Bunting, Ishmale Mouzone, Miles Brown, Tae Cody, Talvin, Osiris Valerio, Dondre Bonitez, Willy, Justin, Tyquan Lee, Tish Jones and Chris Lockhart and J-Rock; and a host of aunts, uncles, godparents, sisters, brothers, cousins and

A Message From Baileigh

I'm sad grandpa but I'm happy because Quasim is in heaven. I always knew I had angels but now I know one personally and I know he is gonna watch over me.

From Quasim's 4 year old niece, Baileigh
