Eulogy

Guillermo E. Bannister, aka William B. Miller, was born to Sidney G. Bannister and Florence V. Miller on May 29, 1952 in Panama, Republic of Panama.

“Guille” as most of us know him was a mischievous child, always doing something to get in trouble. The most remembered childhood memory of his childhood was climbing a mango tree and falling off – with a branch stuck in his jaw. Afterward, the tree was cut down.

He attended and graduated from Erasmus Hall High School in Brooklyn, New York then enlisted in the U.S. Army. While serving in the military, William B. Miller was a paratrooper and gunner on a armored personnel carrier.

William worked meticulously at Roosevelt Hospital as an Assistant Manager in the Central Supply Department. He worked diligently in his department to ensure that all medical instruments were available for all surgical procedures. He was admired and well liked by his co-workers. His words were “No problem” when asked to ensure its delivery.

Recollected and scripted by his sister Amalia Miller

William B. Miller will be remembered always by his loved ones and the many, many friends that have accumulated over the years. May his soul rest in peace with the Lord. We'll see you again, Guille!

Safely Home

*I am home in heaven, dear ones; Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty In this everlasting light.
All the pain and grief is over, Every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever, Safely home in heaven at last.
Did you wonder how I so calmly Trod the valley of the shade?
Oh, but Jesus' love illumined Every dark and fearful glade.
And He came Himself to meet me In that way so hard to tread;
And with Jesus' arm to lean on, Could I have one doubt or dread?
Then you must not grieve so sorely, For I love you dearly still;
Try to look beyond earth's shadows, Pray to trust our Father's will.
There is work still waiting for you, So you must not idly stand;
Do it now, while life remains, You shall rest in Jesus' land.
When that work is all completed, He will gently call you Home;
Oh, the rapture of that meeting, Oh, the joy to see you come!*
