Obituary

Dolores Lavenia Smith, was born the second of seven children to the late Mr. & Mrs. Hugh & Iris Maynard in Atlantic City, New Jersey. She loved living in Harlem and was educated at Washington Irving High School.

In her early youthful years, Dolores attended Abyssinian Baptist Church and worked on the assembly line in Jamaica, Queens producing key chain flashlights.

Dolores loved being outdoors with her family and friends while smoking her cigarettes. She loved to talk and meet people. She met Walter Scott and from this union she had Walter Maynard and Tanya Allen. She later met Roosevelt Walker and in this union produced Anthony Maynard. Later in life, she met James Harris and with this union produced Jonathan Harris. She fell in love with Wilbert Smith and married and became a housewife.

On Thursday, May 22, 2014, Dolores was called from this life.

Dolores is survived by: her four children; seven grandchildren; one brother, Melvin Maynard; two sisters, Gertrude Reese and Cherylene Rosa. She also leaves a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Dolores will be truly missed and above all, the warmth, humor and love that she generated to others will be remembered and cherished for years to come.

*When God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be
He put his arms around you
And whispered come to me
He did not like what you went through
And he gave you rest
His garden must be beautiful
He only takes the best
And when we saw you sleeping
So peaceful and free from pain
We wouldn't wish you back
To suffer that again
Today we say goodbye to our mother.*
