Obituary

Harold Kenneth Chillis was born July 13, 1928 in Newark, New Jersey to Ruth Chillis Adams and Chesterfield Chillis.

Harold was educated in the Newark Public Schools and after completion of his education he was inducted into the United States Army in January 1951 and served until January 1953 during the Korean War.

Upon his return from the military Harold began working with Teddars Incorporated and from there went on to a career with the Ford Motor Company retiring after twenty-five years in 1982 and went on to work nine years at Stacor Cabinet Company.

In 1984, Harold was inducted in to the Tyre Lodge 29 of Prince Hall Masons, serving as a Whipple Master during his service. In his leisure time Harold enjoyed playing peaknuckle and poker, watching baseball, football and Horror and Western Movies.

On May 30th, Harold went to his heavenly home leaving to mourn: his loving wife of twenty-eight years, Betty J. Chillis; daughter, Patricia Simpson (Richard); son, Kevin Chillis (Janeide); granddaughter, Erica Charles (Jean); darling great granddaughter, Mikayla; three sisters-in-law, Ruth Jackson of Ohio, Anne Lampley of NJ and Barbara Lampley of Alabama; and a host of relatives and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
