Obituary

We come together to celebrate the life of a good man that was a good father, a good son, a good brother, a good uncle, a good nephew and also a good friend.

Keith's journey began on October 28, 1971 in Brooklyn, NY, where he was born to Theodore Amos and the late, Deborah Williams. Our beloved Keith Williams' death rode in quietly on May 31, 2014.

Keith Lamont Williams is survived by: his son, Davonne Williams; granddaughter, Keyajah Williams; brother, Chad Williams; sisters, Monique Williams and Latoya Williams; sister-in-law, Tasha Williams; nieces, Unique Williams, Shadonna Williams, Londyn Shephard, Paris Shephard, Marsha Thomas, Destiney Hart, Taniasha Lewis and Ashley Lewis; nephews, Chad Williams, Jr., William Richardson and Rome Shephard; aunts, Ronnie Taylor and Angie Williams; cousins, Kenneth Williams, Jr., Dora Williams, Hameen Williams, Edwin D. Williams and Keith Knots.

Keith Lamont Williams

attended Julia Richman High School where he graduated from and went off to pursue his dream as a dance choreographer at the age of 16 and beyond. Keith has traveled the world teaching artist such as Salt & Pepper, Janet Jackson, Sybil, Slick Rick, the late Aaliyah and C&C Music Factory amongst many other artist. Keith will be truly missed by all his Family, Friends and Foes!!

Good Night By Wilhem!!

I came as a stranger; as a stranger now I leave. The flowers of May once welcomed me warmly; a young girl spoke of love, her mother even of marriage. Now all is bleak-the pathway covered with snow. The time of departure is not mine to choose! I must find my way alone in this darkness. With the shadow of the moon at my side, I search for traces of wildlife in the white snow. Why should I linger and give them reason to send me away? Let stray hounds howl outside their master's house. Love likes to wander from one to another, as if God willed it so. My darling, farewell. A quiet step, a careful shutting of the door so your sleep is not disturbed, and two words written on the gate as I leave, "Good night," to let you know I thought of you.

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*
