Obituary

Eloise “Weenie” Campbell, was born on March 22, 1926 in Owensboro, Kentucky to Joshua Campbell and Avery Stennis-Campbell. She was the third of six children, John, Eleanor, Emma Sue, James and Grady.

At a young age, Eloise and family moved to Meridian/Preston, Mississippi, where they resided for quite some time. In 1943, Eloise met and married Frank Clark and from their union, nine children were produced. JD Clark, Leroy Clark, Kenneth Ray Clark, Dorothy Clark, James Earl Clark, Clifton Clark, Jimmy Dale Clark, Walter (Ricky) Clark and Cynthia Clark. In 1962, Eloise along with her family moved to New York City. While living in New York, Eloise welcomed three more children; Carolyn Clark, Steven Clark and Alan Clark.

In 1968, at the invitation of a friend, Eloise visited The Greater Refuge Temple Church for the first time. She fell in love with this church, but most importantly was intrigued by its doctrine. Eloise was eventually baptized in the wonderful name of Jesus Christ. The following July (1968), she received the gift of the Holy Spirit, while at home singing the song, “Just a closer Walk with thee.” She later took the right hand of fellowship at Greater Refuge and remained a faithful member for almost forty-six years. To God be the Glory. Eloise spent those forty-six years serving God, raising her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren to believe in the power of God.

On the morning of June 25, 2014, at 5:45 a.m., Mother Eloise Clark departed this life and went home to Glory. Eloise was preceded in death by her parents, Joshua and Avery Campbell, her husband, Frank Clark, her siblings, Eleanor, Emma Sue, James and Grady; three children, Dorothy, Leroy and JD. Mother Eloise Campbell-Clark will be greatly missed.

She is survived by: her brother, John Campbell; daughters, Cynthia Clark and Carolyn Davis; sons, Kenneth, Clifton, James, Jimmy, Walter, Steven and Alan. In addition, she is survived by a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews and close friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free

I'm following the path God laid for me. I took his hand when I heard Him call

I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way,

I found that peace at the close of day. If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!

*The following tribute is dedicated to her Just beyond the door, The Father does abide
The Father clothed in glory on the other side with ever-loving arms stretched out wide “Come home my faithful daughter”, the holy Father cried
Just beyond the door, she found a place of rest and now she lays her head upon the Father’s chest,
and rest
and rest.*
