Obituary

Henrietta Jeanette Robinson, was born March 21, 1939 in Charleston, West Virginia. She was the second of three girls born to Alyce and Henry Robinson.

She attended schools in Charleston and later moved to Huntington, West Virginia. Some years later, Henrietta and her two sons, Malcolm Robinson and Melvin Robinson (now deceased) moved to New York City.

Henrietta was employed at Beth Israel Hospital for twenty-three years. She retired on disability when she developed Carpal Tunnel Syndrome in her hands.

She spent eight years in Cleveland, Ohio with Ernest George who she fell in love with. While in Cleveland, Henrietta and her sister, Mildred cared for their mother until she died.

Henrietta was a very faithful member of Southern Baptist Church.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call*

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way,

I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
