Reflections of Life

Alec Anglin was born August 24, 1929 in Danville Illinois to the late James Anglin and Pauline Modest Anglin and resided in New Jersey most of his life.

He was employed as a Truck Driver for Clipper Trucking Company for many years. He was a United States Army Veteran of the Korean Conflict.

He was preceded in death by his parents, John and Pauline Modest Anglin; and a sister, Anna Bell Conklin.

He leaves to cherish fond memories four daughters, Angelia Ford, Marcia Carr, Shirley Ann Reed, and Arianna Anglin; one son, Alaric Anglin; eleven grandchildren; twelve great grandchildren; and a host of other relatives, friends and neighbors.

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*
